Description

This house all in stone needs rehabilitation to be transformed into a high house to Portuguese. It is located in the village of Várzea, near Ansião, where you can find everything you need for your day to day life.

The entrance is made by the side of the house, through a gate, with space to park your car and do what you want with the 600sqm of land you have at the back. In this land, there is a well and a tank where they used to wash their clothes.

The house is tall and has several divisions where once there were bedrooms and a kitchen. There are stairs to an attic (1st floor) with space equal to the whole house. We have a storage area for firewood and agricultural utensils, also this storage room with stairs to an attic. There are even stables where the animals were, all in stone.

The location is very pleasant and spacious, although not very large, is enough to transform it into your daily or holiday home.
