With this spacious new house, you can enjoy spectacular views visible from all of the windows and the balconies. This property is perfect if you want a newly built home that you can still influence. Just ten minutes from Ansiao and the IC8, the house in a quiet country location also benefits from fast access to most amenities. Coimbra is also just thirty minutes away.

Space is what you benefit from in many of these rooms. The ground-floor lounge is enormous and enjoys spectacular views. A hallway links up the rest of the rooms and the stairs to the first floor.

Directly opposite the garage entrance, a luxury bathroom room is pre-installed,

There is a family shower room from the hallway and to the left of the garage entrance. Opposite the bathroom is a large bedroom again with those fabulous views.

Entertaining will be fun in the open plan kitchen diner at the end of the hallway. Some charming ceiling detail is underway.

A landing area immediately leads to a vast open plan kitchen, living room, diner on the first floor. This room will also benefit from attractive ceiling details and those exceptional views.

We immediately have another huge bedroom from the landing, most of the bedrooms have fitted wardrobes, and this one is no exception.

The next bedroom is ensuite and is also very well sized.

Across the landing is a family bathroom, next door to this bathroom is another large bedroom with fitted wardrobes.

There is a smaller room just next door which could be either a bedroom or study.

The last bedroom is also spacious and has built-in wardrobes; while this side of the house does not have the same spectacular views, the outlook is pleasant enough as this is a lovely neighbourhood.
